ORDER:

In the reference read above, the Secretary (Security), Cabinet Secretariat, GoI has informed that as per para2.2 of CMP-2014 of Government of India, all State Governments must have a State Crisis Management Committee under the Chief Secretary, with Secretaries and Heads of concerned Departments/Organizations as members. Similarly, there will be District Crisis Management Committee under the chairmanship of District Magistrate/District Collector.

2. Government, after careful examination of the matter, hereby constitute the District Crisis Management Committee (DCMC) with the following officers:

1. The District Collector, Chairman
2. The Superintendent of Police/Commissioner of Police
3. The District Panchayat Officer
4. The Chief Executive Officer, Zilla Parishad
5. The Joint Director, Agriculture Department
6. The Superintendent Engineer, Rural Water Supply

3. The above Committee would be activated in the event of crisis requiring the involvement of many Departments or having district level implications.

4. The District Crisis Management Committee (DCMC) shall give directions and guidance to the concerned Departments in dealing with a crisis situation as and when necessary.

5. The District Collectors are requested to take necessary action in the matter.
